Scouts Earn Awards

HEUVELTON — Boy Scout Troop 9 of Heuvelton held awards night Oct. 16. Thirteen boys became scouts. They were Chris Ames, Tom Paro, Chris Burdick, John Pagano, Craig Gordon, Dan Weidner, Shane Longshore, Shawn Spriggs, Lucas Matthews, Jon Putney, Kent Pierce, Tom Burdick and Nathan Kelly.

Brent Moulton advanced to tenderfoot and Tim Elliott, Phillip Showen, Jim Spriggs, Marc Larocque and Ron Sheppard advanced to second class.

First class rank was attained by Jon Price, Nathan Vassmer, Mike Pagano and Geoff Day.

The rank of Star Scout was earned by Geoff Timmerman.

Each scout presented his mother with a mother's pin representing his rank.

By attending scout camp this past summer and camping out this fall, nine scouts earned a total of 53 merit badges.

For his devoted helpfulness to the troop, Tom Bennett was named honorary assistant scoutmaster. Chairman of the ceremony was scouting coordinator John Vassmer, assisted by scoutmaster Ron Day and assistant scoutmasters Greg Timmerman, Bill Ames and Joe Larocque.

Heuvelton Seniors Meet

HEUVELTON — The Heuvelton Senior Citizens met at the Presbyterian Church Oct. 19 at noon for a covered dish dinner, business meeting and program. The president, Julia Kittle, led us in the Salute to the Flag. Leona Denny said "Grace."

Twenty-three members and two guests, Elizabeth Schreiner and Lucy Canale attended. The president led us in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The business meeting was called to order at 1 p.m. by the president, Julia Kittle. The Oct. 5 minutes were read. The business reports were given. Leona Denny, sunshine lady, had remembered Russell Mills in the hospital. A card was signed by the members for Russell Mills.

The Thanksgiving dinner will be served at the Masonic Hall Nov. 2 at noon. All members invited.

The president thanked Dorothy MacRorie and Marjorie Backus for being hostesses. The guests Elizabeth Schreiner and Lucy Canale presented a very special program about "The Visually Impaired". They are from Glens Falls, N.Y.

Morristown News Notes

BY MARG MURRAY

On Oct. 29 the Sunday School children from the Morristown United Methodist Church went around the village collecting for UNICEF, a project they undertake each year, and came up with an impressive total of $170. Congratulations to all for caring about others.

A surprise birthday party was given for Morristown resident, Ida Blackmer, on Sunday the 29th hosted by her daughter, Patricia Woodcock, and granddaughter, Sandy Blasko at the Woodcock home from noon until 3 p.m. Many relatives, friends and neighbors were present to fete her on this "special" occasion.

On Oct. 28 Debbie, Jason and Jessica Murray of Hammond and Marg Murray, Morristown, attended a Halloween party in the evening at the home of Peter and Sue Arcadi in St. Regis Falls along with 40 small ghosts and goblins invited for this occasion.

Hammond Central School held their annual Halloween party Oct. 31 and Marg Murray and Jean McGuire were present to watch the children from kindergarten through sixth grade walk around the gym showing their costumes to the enjoyment of all there.

Both parents and teachers are to be commended as a lot of planning and work goes into this every year.

The Morristown Food Pantry, now located in the Presbyterian Stone Church, has made an inventory and could use soap, sugar, canned fruits, canned meats, toilet items, cereals to round out what's lacking.

Anyone seeking more information may call either 393-2208, 375-6386 or 393-0426.

Nov. 13-19 is Children's Book Week and the Morristown Public Library will celebrate this event with a birthday party in honor of Ludwig Bemmelman's heroine Madeline's 50th anniversary. Youngsters, pre-school through grade three, are invited to the library Nov. 18 at 10 a.m. to enjoy puzzles, games, movies and games about Madeline. Enter the
